

Canberra Meeting

Tuesday 16th June 2026

FIB 4 testing in the management of fatty liver disease

Professor Shiv Chitturi

Staff Specialist, the Canberra Hospital

Prof Chitturi has been a Staff specialist at the gastroenterology and hepatology unit of the Canberra Hospital and Associate Professor of the ANU medical school since July 2005. He qualified in 1986 and completed his initial training in India, his gastroenterology training in the UK and liver fellowship in Sydney. His main clinical practice is in Hepatology and his research interests are in fatty liver disease and drug induced liver injury. He has over 50 publications and has co-authored chapters in leading textbooks of gastroenterology and liver disease.

Please join us in person or online:

- Date: Tuesday 16 June 2026
- Time:
 - 6pm: Arrival
 - 6.30-7.30pm: Presentation
 - 7.30-8.30pm: Finger Food, Networking
- Where: The Canberra Hospital, Building 4, ANU Auditorium
- Cost:
 - Members: free (on-site and online)
 - Non-members: $20 (on-site and online)

Register Here

Kindly Sponsored by:

